

Bederra, Advanced Nuclear in diagnostic joint venture

The Business Review

Tuesday, 23 September 2008

A unit of has formed a joint venture with to provide specialized nuclear medicine imaging systems. Medical imaging firm Bederra (Pink Sheets: BDRR) and Advanced Nuclear will team up to focus on providing imaging systems in applications such as cardiac, thyroid and gastrointestinal testing. Both companies are based in Houston. Graham Williams, Bederra chief executive, says the joint venture will have appeal to doctor referral networks, and expects the deal will add $1 million to annual revenue....

Full News Article | RSS | Post A Comment | See Comments | article toolbox | Text size | Previous Article | Next Article

Asthma study is temporarily suspended by Genaca partner has voluntarily suspended three ongoing phase-II clinical trials of an experimental asthma medicine being developed in a partnership with a Montgomery County biopharmaceutical company. In addition,

Related News Stories | 12 results | next 12 results

Bederra Corp. Open for Business and Unharmed by Hurricane Ike

HOUSTON, Sept. 17 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Bederra Corporation (Pink Sheets: BDRR), a medical imaging and diagnostic company, announced today that its wholly owned subsidiaries Diagnos, Inc. and Lumar Imaging,...

The right dose

Pharmaceuticals background led Judy Benaroch Johnson to prescription for success in meeting planning jake dean Judy Benaroch Johnson...

Sign up now and receive 15 Free SMS Credits

Ads by Google

WAR on IRAN: When? Is War on Iran Inevitable? World Experts Speak on Israel, US, Nukes FORA.tv/channel/Mustil

The New Missile Age Is America safe? Watch the video at Heritage.org www.Heritage.org/33-4

Mobile C-arms Mobile x-ray based imaging featuring low dose technology www.ziehm.com

Delta Petroleum Hiring Every Job. Everywhere. www.JobsOnline.net